    - i. Steve talked about the location, Pasta Mia, and the number of attendees who either came on 2 or 4 wheels. There were 9 in attendance.
  - b. 5th Friday Lunch ride – Hugh Brandt reported that he did this run and picked a spot that he hadn't been to before, KC Cabin was the location. There were 7 in attendance for this ride.
  - c. Wisconsin Motorcycle Memorial Bricks – Hugh B
    - i. Hugh has been trying to get ahold of the principles who run the memorial but has been totally unsuccessful. He has made numerous phone calls to a number of numbers and has not gotten any response from any messages he has left. Hugh is not going to proceed forward on ordering any bricks till he can actually talk to someone at the memorial foundation.
10. Program

- a. Make the President/Vice President Laugh – No Takers
- b. First Long Trip – Dave Ewing
  - i. This was Dave's first long ride. There was good weather for the most part. There was a lot of good riding and good comradery. He had a good time and would take another long ride depending on where it was heading. He did note that there were 9 various rides that everyone was able to pick which rides they wanted to take. Steve gave some insights into some of the food problems that the hotel was having with supplies. Overall, they all got served well. Hugh noted that he got carded when he tried to order a beer. That caused a lot of laughter.

11. 50/50 and Door Prizes – No 50/50 this month. Door prizes were awarded to Ken McCall, Lynn Vicker, Joh Hill, Dave Ewing, Marge Anderson
